

News from our Peace Region February 2019

More than $1.5 million approved for fish and wildlife

Across all three FWCP regions, we received 118 grant applications for fish and wildlife projects for 2019 - 2020. Our Peace Region Board reviewed 34 grant applications and approved $1,522,534 in project funding to be announced this spring. Grant applicants will be notified in February and projects could start by April. Read our Information Kit for approved grant applicants.

Moose and forestry: free presentation on Feb. 21

Join us in Fort St. John on Thursday, February 21 for a free discussion about forestry and moose. Dr. Roy Rea, UNBC, will attempt to "speak for the moose" and discuss the Chief Forester's guidelines. Read more. Join online if you can't be there.

Come and support local fish and wildlife

Our Community Engagement Grant is helping fund the Annual Ducks Unlimited

Community Engagement Grants

Remember that we have Community Engagement Grants \(CEG\) available in our Peace Region. Contact us if you have a project idea that will benefit fish and wildlife, especially if it involves volunteers. You could be eligible for up to $1,000. They're easy to apply for, with a quick turn-around.

The FWCP is a partnership between BC Hydro, the Province of B.C., Fisheries and Oceans Canada, First Nations, and Public Stakeholders, to conserve and enhance fish and wildlife in watersheds impacted by existing BC Hydro dams.
